

SAYS

- I need a clear, straightforward opportunity that doesn't involve unnecessary complexity or exploitation.
- How can I verify if this job post is legitimate and not a scam?
- I just want a stable income so I can feel secure and independent.

FEELS

- Frustrated by platforms that aren't compatible with screen readers.
- Anxious about potential scams that ask for upfront payments.
- Ambitious about his path toward financial independence.
- Skeptical of job ads that sound too good to be true.

EMPATHY MAP -ZAIN SAFWAT

THINKS

- Will I find an employer who values my skills rather than focusing on my visual impairment?
- I am capable, but the complex interfaces of these job platforms are my biggest barrier.
- The market is competitive; do I have enough experience to stand out?

DOES

- Relies heavily on Facebook groups to find work opportunities.
- Uses his mobile phone as his primary and only tool for all tasks.
- Watches YouTube tutorials to troubleshoot technical hurdles.
- Avoids complex platforms that don't offer a simple user experience.

SAY

-I need a clear, straightforward opportunity that doesn't involve unnecessary complexity or exploitation.

-How can I verify if this job post is legitimate and not a scam?

-I just want a stable income so I can feel secure and independent.

FEEL

Frustrated by previous job search experiences.
Worried about facing uncomfortable or awkward situations during applications.

Determined to prove his competence and capabilities.

Hopeful to find a respectful and supportive workplace.

EMPATHY MAP - AHMED SAMY

#1D546D

THINK

Is this company truly open to hiring people with disabilities?
Will the work environment be suitable for my needs?
Will I be evaluated based on my skills or my condition?
Is this job stable and secure for my future?

DOES

Carefully reads job descriptions before applying.
Sometimes hesitates to apply due to fear of rejection.

Looks for companies that clearly state their support for people with disabilities.
Occasionally relies on recommendations from friends or connections.

SAY

"I don't need a job out of pity; I need a real opportunity where I am evaluated based on my skills."
"Is the workplace actually accessible (ramps, elevators, bathrooms)?"
"I am looking for a role that values efficiency and digital marketing expertise over my physical condition."
"I prefer Remote or Hybrid models to bypass infrastructure barriers."
"Most specialized platforms for people with disabilities in Egypt lack consistency or real results."

FEEL

Frustrated by previous job search experiences.
Worried about facing uncomfortable or awkward situations during applications.
Determined to prove his competence and capabilities.
Hopeful to find a respectful and supportive workplace.

EMPATHY MAP - SAMIR

THINK

Is this company truly open to hiring people with disabilities?
Will the work environment be suitable for my needs?
Will I be evaluated based on my skills or my condition?
Is this job stable and secure for my future?

DOES

Power-Uses Mainstream Apps: Regularly checks LinkedIn and Wuzzuf because they host high-quality companies.
Leverages Networking: Relies heavily on professional recommendations and "word of mouth" to find inclusive environments.
Pre-Screening: Reads Job Descriptions (JD) meticulously to check for "Remote" keywords before applying.
Advocacy: Participates in initiatives and activities that support the inclusion of people with disabilities in the workforce.
Vets Employers: Directly asks about workplace accessibility during the interview phase to avoid future disappointments.